Procedures

Court Use/Sign Up – Winter Season

The court schedule will be posted on the message board on Sunday for the following week's court sign up. All prescheduled court time will be blocked out such as coaching and tournaments.

1. Players are responsible for scheduling their play time and are limited to one time slot per day unless there are 'no shows' or available time slots at the beginning of the scheduled play time.

2. The schedule has been developed to get the maximum amount of play time for our players during the prime morning hours. All members should respect the club's efforts to manage our limited court resource:

- If a player has scheduled themselves to play, they are expected to show up. If a conflict arises, make a good effort to remove yourself from the schedule so that someone else has an opportunity to play.
- If a player is not scheduled to play, they are expected to understand if scheduled players are not agreeable to rotating them into their play time.

3. When the scheduled play time ends, players should leave the court (even if it means a game is not finished).

4. There are additional 'Open' play times available, members should refer to the general schedule posted on the message board.

5. During Prime Time – Winter Season, LF and PL residents, house guests and renter/lessees may sign up for court time. The club officers must approve court use by other groups, organizations, persons who reside outside the community.

6. Court Reservations – Groups who choose to play together outside of the 'Scheduled' time slots, are required to complete, and post a Court Reservation form on the court(s) at least one day prior to the event. Failure to follow the process could result in court use conflicts which the involved parties are expected to resolve.

Court Maintenance

1. All players are responsible for taking care of court equipment to include fencing, court surface, and nets in such a manner as to not damage or in any way diminish its functionality.
2. Carpets for drying wet courts should be hung up off the ground so that they can dry out as quickly as possible and then placed in bags to prevent getting wet from weather conditions.
3. Players are expected to wipe off their shoes to avoid bringing stones onto the courts which can damage the court surface.
4. All players, but particularly the last players to leave the courts should perform a check of the courts and surrounding area and ensure they are in good condition for the next play time; stack chairs/tables and move to fence, pick up stray personal belongings and place with 'lost and found', dispose of any debris that has been left behind, etc.

Court Etiquette

Introduction:

Observing these precepts of good behavior will likely make the sport of PB pleasant and more enjoyable for everyone. The concept of competitiveness does not encompass rudeness. Loud, abusive, demeaning, accusatory, or profane language, intentional taunting, paddle throwing, or hitting balls indiscriminately or any other negative behavior is prohibited.

Court Etiquette

1. Wet Courts – Areas of pooling water or slippery spots should be dried using the court rugs, brooms and/or blowers (if available). All players using the courts are responsible for drying the courts prior to use.
2. Paddle Organizer – The paddle organizer is intended to keep a steady flow of players moving on/off the court and provide equal play time to all players.
 - Players are expected to note their name on their paddle and be ready to play when their paddle is next up in the paddle organizer.
 - Upon arriving at the court, players should place their paddle in the next available slot, working left to right. Each slot holds two paddles.
 - At the end of a game, players who plan to continue playing, should place their paddle in the next available slot. The top row is for the players who won, bottom row is for the players who lost.
 - The 'pin' indicates which group of players goes on the next available court. After removing the next four paddles, (from either the top or bottom row) before proceeding to the court one of the players should move the pin either up or down to indicate the next group of four players).
 - Players should not move paddles around (their own or other players) in the organizer for the purpose of manipulating player teams/opponents.
3. Name Tags – All paying members are issued a name tag and are expected to wear them when playing. This promotes an open and friendly atmosphere and helps members get to know one another.
4. Socializing – PB is a great place to meet new people and make new friends. However, out of respect for those on the court, players and spectators should not socialize/converse within the courts or across the court fencing.
5. Switching Courts – There may be times when weather conditions (i.e. wind, sun) make playing more challenging on one side of the court or another. In such cases, players can decide if switching court sides is desired and at which point in the game. This is typically done at mid-game based on the score.

Court Etiquette

6. Shorten Game – When player count is high during a time slot, games should be shortened to a ‘first to nine-point’ game.
7. Scoring – The serving player should call out the score loud enough for each player on the court to hear. If players lose track of the score, the last known score will be used. An out of bounds ball is the call of the receiving team; when in doubt, the ball is called ‘in’. The opposing team does not determine the call of the ball.

The Code

Introduction:

This code is concerned with promoting and maintaining fairness and proper court facilities through the sport of PB at Fairway Pines in the absence of officials. Thus, the code goes beyond mere enjoyment of the game, but is a strong attempt to ensure that all players are committed to the principle of equal treatment for all. Since everyone’s own natural interest is his or her chief interest, the code emphasizes that all doubt must be resolved in favor of one’s opponents. All abusive, intimidating, or distracting behavior is strictly prohibited.

General:

1. Do not stall, complain or in any way demean another player. Such demonstrations are not part of play and should not be used to gain an advantage over your opponent. Intentional distractions, such as paddle waving, yelling at your opponent, etc. made to adversely affect the play of your opponent, are against the code.

2. Wear proper attire, including shirts and footwear.
3. Do not place towels, clothing, accessories or equipment over the net posts, net or on the court. At the request of an opponent, such items should be removed before play continues.

Behavioral Consequences

In cases where the behavior expectations documented above have been violated, the consequences outlined below will be carried out. The person (s) observing the misbehavior must put the complaint forward in writing to a club officer who will then bring it to the president for action. This way there is a paper trail with dates.

- 3.a.i.1. First Offence: Player will receive a verbal warning calling out the observed/reported negative behavior followed by an email to document the occurrence.
- 3.a.i.2. Second Offence: Player will receive a written notice via email calling out the observed/reported negative behavior. Notice will include results of a third offence should that occur.
- 3.a.i.3. Third Offence: Player will be removed from the Pickleball club for the current and next prime season. They will no longer enjoy the benefits associated with being a club member during this 'cool down period' to include free pickleball lessons offered by the club instructors.
