New business:

Charities distribution of funds Discussion

FISH has too much money in their bank account as they received a large donation, so they requested that we do not have to donate to them this year. It was on the list for $200.00. It was determined that this amount would still go to FISH.

How about we give to people in the community that need food

- This will have to be brought up next year.
- Comments were made that we tried this, and it just was not feasible for us to continue

How do you decide how much money and which organization?

The board goes by recommendations and amounts from previous years to decide and then the women's club votes on it. Some women would like this list further a head of time to also provide their input. We'll have to see if there is a better way next season

Voted on 2 Nays, rest Yays

motion to accept by Kathy Patterson, second by Linda Baker
